Domestic Violence Awareness Press Conference at WCA

Boise, ID – October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month and the Women's and Children's Alliance (WCA) is hosting a press conference at 10am, Thursday, October 15, 2009 at their offices on 8th and Washington streets in downtown Boise. Boise Police Chief, Mike Masterson, Ada County Sherriff, Gary Raney, Ada County Prosecuting Attorney, Greg Bower, FACES Executive Director, Kevin McTeague, WCA Deputy Director, Bev La Chance, and a survivor of domestic violence who recently graduated from the WCA's program, will all speak.

Please join us to hear about family violence in our community, what is being done about it, and the role the community can play in putting an end to it.

For more information see the WCA website at www.wcaboise.org.

The Women's and Children's Alliance is located at 720 W. Washington and provides safety, healing and freedom to victims of domestic abuse and sexual assault. The WCA operates secure shelters and transitional homes, and provides professional counseling, legal advocacy, outreach and crisis services to women and children.
