Breaking the Cycle Of Teen Dating Abuse

Tremendous work is being done in the school setting in an effort to keep students in safe and healthy relationships. To support these efforts, the WCA offers the following resources to local junior, middle and high schools:

Classroom Presentations
Presentations cover a variety of topics including: the relationship spectrum, building healthy relationships, recognizing the red flags of dating abuse, bystander intervention/how to help a friend and available resources. Presentations can be one-time or span multiple class periods for deeper understanding and skill-building.

Parent Education Nights
Teaching parents to recognize signs of dating abuse and how to talk with their teens about it.

Community Education Nights
Provide information to the community about domestic abuse and the services of the WCA.

Faculty Training
Potential topics could include: The Impact of Domestic Abuse on Children, Trauma Sensitive Responses for Schools.

Worth Campaign Toolkit
Healthy Teen Relationship Awareness Campaign

In Their Shoes (8th grade and up)
‘In Their Shoes’ is a scenario-based training designed to help participants talk about what dating is like for today’s teens –from their perspective. (Designed to follow educational presentation)

Education for Student Groups (athletics, clubs, etc.)
