

#KnowYourWorth Call for Content

This February during Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month (TDVAM), the WCA Youth REPs are hosting a call for content. We are specifically looking for visual art content created by teens for teens that we can use throughout the year on our social media platforms to share resources, spread awareness, and advocate for dating violence prevention. We want content that is unique, fun, and engaging - think outside the box, lean into TikTok trends, be bold and original! We really hope you'll consider creating and submitting content. Please see below for all the details!

What do you mean by visual art?

- We are classifying visual art as:
 - Drawings
 - Graphic Design / Infographics
 - Paintings
 - Photographs
 - Videos (2 min. cap)

- You must submit digitally, so if you create a drawing or painting, we will need a photo of the drawing/painting.
- If you utilize sounds or images that are not your own, they must be royalty free.

What should the content say/convey?

- We are also looking for content that meets one of these three goals:

R ESOURCES	Helps connect teens to teen dating violence resources (like loveisrespect.org)
A WARENESS	Spreads awareness about teen dating violence, and its impact nationally and locally
P REVENTION	Promotes healthy relationships and/or the prevention of teen dating violence, or embodies the 2021 theme of #KnowYourWorth which is all about self-empowerment because we are all worthy of safe, healthy relationships!

How do I submit?

- Complete the submission form: <http://bit.ly/KYWSubForm>
- DEADLINE: 11:59PM on Sunday, 2/28/21

What if I have more questions?
